

WINE BUYING GUIDE

01/03/2010

Georges Vigouroux 2006 Château de Haute-Serre Malbec (Cahors)

A Best Buy

91 The perfumes of wood mingle with sweet Malbec berry fruit aromas. The wine is in a style that initially emphasizes the fresh, juicy fruit. Then it moves in on the tannins to give a densely dry wine, finishing with a tight, mineral edge. - R.V. (3/1/2010) -

Georges Vigouroux 2007 Château de Mercuès Malbec (Cahors)

A Best Buy

90 The home vineyard of the Vigouroux family has produced an elegant wine, its fruit finely in keeping with freshness as well as solid, dry classic Malbec tannins. The wine's fruit is just an element in this well-balanced wine. - R.V. (3/1/2010) -

Georges Vigouroux 2006 Château Leret Monpezat Malbec (Cahors)

A Best Buy

90 From a vineyard managed by the Vigouroux family, Leret Monpezat's wine is big, dry, its massive dark fruit a powerful underlay for a series of tannins. The wine's depth is immense, powerful, a great concentration of licorice and blackberry flavors. Age for 3–4 years. - R.V. (3/1/2010) -